Top professionals to gather at Leaders in Luxury event

Maria Babaev of Laffey Fine Homes

Chosen for Advisory Board for prestigious meeting of luxury REALTORS®

Dallas (TX) -- Local luxury real estate professional, Maria Babaev of Laffey Fine Homes has been selected as one of only 6 agents to serve on the Advisory Board of Leaders in Luxury (LIL), an invitation-only educational and networking event for real estate agents who work in the million and multi-million dollar home and estate market in the U.S. and Canada.

Hosted by Dallas-based Institute for Luxury Home Marketing, the event is scheduled for November 15-17, at the Ritz Carlton Laguna Niguel in Dana Point (CA)

"This special event draws U.S. and Canadian real estate professionals who are true experts in the luxury residential market – those who work from the $1,000,000 to $100,000,000 price point. It is an honor to be asked to serve on this year's LIL Advisory Board," Maria said.

Maria Babaev is a leader in the competitive Gold Coast Long Island real estate market. As the Managing Director of the Luxury Portfolio International division of Laffey Fine Homes, Maria relies on her years of experience on Wall Street to successfully negotiate and manage the sales of some of the country's finest homes.

The 2011 Leaders in Luxury Advisory Board also includes Kathleen Bucher, Keller Williams, Austin (TX); Leslee Farrell, Macdonald Realty, Victoria (BC); Gretchen Lambeth, Hawaiian Isle Real Estate, Kailua-Kona (HI); Karen Millar, Royal LePage, Toronto (ON); Carole Smith, Esslinger, Wooten, Maxwell, Coral Gables (FL).

According to Laurie Moore-Moore, Founder of The Institute for Luxury Home Marketing, "Our LIL Advisory Board is made up of a diverse group of luxury professionals from across North America who are leaders in their luxury residential markets. What they have in common is strong expertise in the luxury home niche and a commitment to providing outstanding service to affluent buyers and sellers."
